School Newsletter

Welcome from the Headteacher

Ramadan Mubarak to all our families who are observing this special month. Thank you for your support and understanding with our policy on fasting for pupils in school. If you have any questions about this, please see Senior Leaders who are on the gates at the start and end of each day.

It was fantastic to see everyone sharing books together on Thursday last week for World Book Day. We hope your child enjoyed the book they were gifted to bring home and you've been able to use their voucher with them. Thank you also to the parents who came to Mr Hoskin's Reading Workshop on Friday morning, look out for more information about his upcoming Phonics one soon.

Ramadan...

Ramadan Mubarak to all of our families that are celebrating Ramadan.

We are aware that in some families, older children may want to participate in the fast and are encouraged to practice their fasting in a way that is appropriate for their age.

Therefore, in line with previous years, children in year 6 will be allowed to fast during school for one day per week, on Fridays only.

We are the CHAMPIONS!!!!

Manchester Hockey Champions...

Mr Morgan, Mr Parmley and Miss Wilson witnessed our amazing Hockey Team compete in the finals and take Chapel Street to the top of the leaderboard!!!

They showed fantastic skill, teamwork and determination throughout the competition and we couldn't be more proud!

Well done to all!!!
