Welcome from the Head Teacher

Thank you to all parents and carers who came to our drop-in on Monday morning this week. The children love sharing their classrooms and books with you and it's a great opportunity for teachers to let you know what everyone is learning this half term and how you can help at home.

It was wonderful to see all children so excited about books and reading as part of World Book Day on Thursday – they looked so comfy in their pajamas. We were delighted to have an exciting visit from a 'real life author' and the children loved hearing about their writing process and how to become authors themselves.

I'd also like to thank families for their support with our policy for children fasting during Ramadan and wish Ramadan Mubarak to everyone who is celebrating this special time of year. Similarly, the children have enjoyed learning about Lent and Shrove Tuesday this week and we have many families who will be marking these special occasions too.
